Equipping Pastor
Basis found in Ephesians 4:11-12

Ministry Area: The body of believers at Centerville Baptist and the community they serve
Reports to: Pastor
Compensation: up to $20,600 annual salary
Purpose: To equip Christians for the work of service that they are called to as their hearts are broken for their community.

General Responsibilities:

1. Keep your personal relationship with Christ alive and vibrant.
2. Begin this position by focusing on the Youth and Children Ministry Teams to provide assistance with their ministries.
3. Eventually broaden the scope by working with all current Ministry Teams and Committees helping to align their work with the overall vision of the church.
4. Provide direction and education for all Ministry Teams and Committees to perform their service.
5. Be willing to serve the people of Centerville Baptist and the community it serves.
6. Aid the pastor in encouraging Christians to give their lives to missions.
7. Teach Christians in our body of believers how to be broken hearted servants.
8. Help educate the body as to the difference between "ministry to people" and "being a neighbor to people".
9. Train leadership to discover where God is at work in the community.
10. Develop a system for connecting Christians gifts with areas of service.
11. Help lay missionaries to the community with personal discouragement issues, by providing encouragement and personal ministry.
12. Use stories about service (both positive and challenging stories) to educate the body on the vision.
13. Work with lay missionaries to evaluate what resources are needed for community service and help them acquire those resources.
14. Work with ministry partners to understand what resources they have and what resources we can provide for them.
15. Attend Church Council and Conference meetings.
16. Help Ministry Team leaders with Budget process.
17. Attend continuing education courses, conferences, etc. that will aid in the growth of abilities to perform the duties of this position.
18. Other duties as assigned by the pastor.